About the Assessment Centre

Noura Al-Otaibi took part in a VIFM Talent Assessment Centre as part of the Corporate Banking - Senior Manager Selection, Q2 2026 engagement. This report summarises the results of the assessment.

Assessment Centres consist of a number of different activities and exercises providing participants with a range of opportunities to demonstrate their competence. Participants are observed by trained assessors who collect behavioural evidence related to the relevant competencies.

Exercises Completed

- Strategic In-Basket (In-Basket / E-Tray, 90 minutes)
- Direct-Report Role Play (Role Play, 45 minutes)
- Business Case Presentation (Oral Presentation, 30 minutes)
- Behavioural Interview (CBI, 60 minutes)

How to Use This Report

For each competency, Noura Al-Otaibi was rated on a 1 to 5 scale:

- 5 - Significant Strength
- 4 - Strength
- 3 - Competent
- 2 - Development Needed
- 1 - Significant Development Needed

The overall competency rating is not necessarily an average of the scores from the exercises - some activities are rated more heavily than others based on the competency-to-exercise matrix.

This report provides information around the participant's strengths and development areas in relation to skills and behaviours important for the target role. You may regard this report as being particularly relevant for the next 24 months.

RECOMMENDATION · READY WITH DEVELOPMENT

Noura is a strong analytical and delivery performer: she sets direction, isolates the assumption that matters, and turns ambiguity into a sequenced plan. The clear development priority is people-leadership - tightening how she communicates a recommendation and shifting from solving for her team to coaching them. Recommended as Ready with Development: appoint with targeted support on the two PEOPLE competencies. (Illustrative sample - synthetic candidate.)

Strength

4/5 · Strength

EXERCISE RATINGS

Strategic In-Basket 4/5 · Strength

Direct-Report Role Play 4/5 · Strength

OBSERVED STRENGTHS

- + [Business Case Presentation] Linked a tactical cost decision to the three-year portfolio ambition the panel had not yet surfaced.
- + [Strategic In-Basket] Sequenced the in-tray around strategic impact rather than urgency, deferring low-leverage items.

SUGGESTED DEVELOPMENT ACTIONS

- Pressure-test each plan against a downside scenario before committing - name the one assumption that would break it.

EXERCISE RATINGS

Strategic In-Basket 4/5 · Strength

Direct-Report Role Play 4/5 · Strength

OBSERVED STRENGTHS

- + [Business Case Presentation] Isolated the single assumption that broke the business case and re-ran the numbers before recommending.

SUGGESTED DEVELOPMENT ACTIONS

- Keep doing this - and make the disconfirming check explicit so others can follow the reasoning.

Direct-Report Role Play

3/5 · Competent

OBSERVED STRENGTHS

+ [Behavioural Interview] Weighed risk and reward proportionately when describing a real escalation under time pressure.

DEVELOPMENT AREAS

[Strategic In-Basket] A few calls defaulted to caution where the evidence supported a faster, bolder choice.

SUGGESTED DEVELOPMENT ACTIONS

· Set a default decision rule for recurring trade-offs so judgement is consistent under load.

OBSERVED STRENGTHS

+ [Strategic In-Basket] Took an ambiguous remit and returned a sequenced 90-day plan with named owners and checkpoints.

SUGGESTED DEVELOPMENT ACTIONS

· Stretch the ownership outward - hold peers to their commitments as visibly as your own.

Direct-Report Role Play

3/5 · Competent

OBSERVED STRENGTHS

+ [Strategic In-Basket] Triaged a crowded in-tray into a defensible order with clear rationale.

DEVELOPMENT AREAS

[Business Case Presentation] Plan held few contingencies; a slipped dependency would have had no fallback.

SUGGESTED DEVELOPMENT ACTIONS

· Build one explicit contingency into every plan - the 'if this slips, then that' line.

DEVELOPMENT AREAS

[Business Case Presentation] Over-explained the rationale in the board brief; the core recommendation arrived late and landed diluted.

[Direct-Report Role Play] Did not adjust register for a non-technical stakeholder, who disengaged.

SUGGESTED DEVELOPMENT ACTIONS

- Lead with the recommendation, then the why: situation - recommendation - one reason - the ask, in 90 seconds.
- Read the room: name the listener's priority back to them before making your case.

DEVELOPMENT AREAS

[Direct-Report Role Play] In the direct-report role play, solved the problem for the report rather than developing their own thinking.

SUGGESTED DEVELOPMENT ACTIONS

- Swap solutions for questions: ask 'what have you tried, and what would you do next?' before offering the answer.
- Hold one development-only conversation per report per month - no task agenda.

OBSERVED STRENGTHS

- + [Direct-Report Role Play] Stayed composed when the role-player escalated, keeping the conversation on track.

DEVELOPMENT AREAS

[Business Case Presentation] Recovery from a tough question was slower than ideal; momentum dipped before regaining it.

SUGGESTED DEVELOPMENT ACTIONS

- Prepare a 'reset line' for tough moments - a phrase that buys two seconds and steadies the delivery.

Development Recommendations

Competency	Recommendation	Priority
Clear & Adaptive Communication	Lead with the recommendation then the why; rehearse a 90-second situation-recommendation-reason-ask pattern before each senior update.	high
Coaching & Talent Growth	Run one development-only conversation per direct report each month; replace solutions with questions.	high
Planning & Prioritisation	Add one explicit contingency to every plan and review dependencies weekly.	medium
