Next steps & defensibility

RECOMMENDED NEXT STEPS

- > Advance: Meets the bar overall with specific development areas - advance to hiring-manager review with the development note attached.
- > Attach the development note on Clear & Adaptive Communication, Coaching & Talent Growth so the hiring manager can plan onboarding support.
- > Share the candidate-facing report with the applicant (development view) and the hiring-manager brief with the decision-maker.
- > Log the structured result against the requisition for an auditable, like-for-like comparison across applicants.

WHY THIS IS DEFENSIBLE

- + Behaviour-based: scores come from observed behaviour across multiple exercises, not a single interview impression.
- + Job-relevant: every competency maps to the role's success profile; the bar is set before assessment.
- + Consistent: the same competencies, exercises, and rating scale apply to every applicant for the role.
- + Multi-rater: ratings are reconciled in an assessor wash-up, reducing single-rater bias.
- + A screening signal, never an auto-reject: a human makes the hiring decision.

Assessed across 4 exercises (Strategic In-Basket, Direct-Report Role Play, Business Case Presentation, Behavioural Interview). Role bar = Competent (3/5). Coverage = share of assessed competencies at or above the bar. Results are most relevant for the next ~24 months. This summary is for internal talent-acquisition use; share externally only with the candidate's awareness.
